Once upon a time, a ten year old girl named Alice, lived with her parents. Alice was so courageous and kind. One fine day, they planned to go on a ‘safari’ in the forest.

Alice was very excited about it and started to pack the things needed for the safari. She took a small backpack and kept her water bottle, a camera and a small encyclopedia on plants and animals inside it. She entered her room and opened the closet for changing her clothes, and took out a T-shirt, her shorts and hat. She changed her dress with excitement and ran to the front door to buckle her shoes. When she was confused as to which shoe she should wear, her mom came up and selected her sports shoes and Alice wore it.

Alice and her parents headed towards the forest in their car and on reaching there, they parked their car and went to the counter. There, they bought 3 tickets for the safari and some snacks to eat in the forest. A person accompanied them to ensure their safety. They started their journey on a jeep and saw many animals on their way.

This included lions roaring at each other, tigers roaming here and there and foxes drinking water in the stream. After a while, they stopped at a place where there weren't any animals, and had their snacks over there.

When they were done, they were about to start again, but Alice was missing! Her parents couldn't believe this. Her mom screamed, "Oh my god! Where is Alice?" and shouted for her. On the other hand, Alice was sitting on a huge rock, frightened and lost, in the middle of the forest. After some time, she gathered her courage and bravely started walking deeper into the forest. While she was walking, she saw a girl. She went towards her and asked, "What's your name?" The girl turned back in fright, and replied, "Ahhhh! Oh Hi. My name is Tina."
